ALDERMAN NOT AFRAID

MR. CRAWFORD, OF THE FOURTH WARD, DISPLEASED WITH NEWSPAPERS.

HAS A ROAST FOR THE RAILWAYS

Says They Will Not Put in Crossings, but Does Not Mention the Deceased Six-Miles-an-Hour Ordinance.

To the Democrat-Sentinel.

I am thoroughly disgusted with the attitude of the Democrat-Sentinel, the Capital and a few citizens of this city who go fawning and cringing before the might and power of the railroads which run through our city. It would seem from what these papers say that our very lives are dependent upon the railroads; that there are no laws to restrain or govern them in any respect; that we are absolutely powerless and defenseless, and that we must shape our every act to suit the pleasure or caprice of their local employees.

Have we forgotten what cormorants these railroads are? They are never satisfied, but are always asking for more and more. They have no respect for our wishes and they never consult us when they want to take any step affecting our welfare, unless they see a chance to make us give them something, or to force us to do something they want.

Look at the history of the railroads in Pettis county: When the Missouri Pacific railroad was built through this county we gave them the right of way, paid the cost of grading, laying the ties and track and built all the depots and side-tracks. We gave the railroad one-fourth of all the lots in the city and all the ground it needed for yards and shops. We gave it thirty acres of land and $40,000 in money to locate its machine shops here.

We did the same with the M., K. & T., giving it the ground (which it still owns) upon which to locate its machine shops. Pettis county, Sedalia township and the city of Sedalia built and paid for everything the railroads ever put into this town as originally constructed.

When the M., K. & T. wanted additional shops we gave them sixty acres of land and $100,000 in money. When the Missouri Pacific outgrew the little shops it had built on the land and with the money we gave them, they demanded and we paid $188,000 in cash and 120 acres of valuable land.

Have they ever asked anything that we didn't give them? And what did they ever do for us except to operate trains and carry out our freight and passengers for a full consideration?

They didn't consult us when they took the division to Jefferson City and destroyed the value of property in East Sedalia. Jefferson City paid the Missouri Pacific $25,000 to move the division. Nobody in Sedalia claims that the railroad ever asked our consent or consulted our interest before making the move.

When the M., K. & T. talked about establishing headquarters in Sedalia they demanded and we paid them $25,000, and when they got ready they moved the headquarters from Sedalia to Parsons, without consulting us or restoring the consideration.

When the railroads get ready to act they pay no attention to our wishes or interests, but act utterly regardless of both; but when we want anything of the railroad companies, some people think we must go fawning and cringing around them like whipped curs.

The occasion of this present trouble is that we cannot get the railroads to fix up the street crossings, as the statutes and the city ordinances require them to do. The council has passed the necessary ordinances, and we have been nagging at the railroads for a year, but they will do nothing. Ohio street was paved to the railroad crossing on the south, and Quincy street has had sidewalks constructed to the railroad crossing on both sides for months, and yet the railroad will not fix up the crossings so as to make them decent.

What can we do under these circumstances? If we pass an ordinance putting some restrictions upon the railroad, then the newspapers and a few timid citizens set up a howl that we are ruining the town and that the railroad companies will abandon the operation of trains through the city.

Why, the Democrat-Sentinel cited an instance the other day where a railroad company had shut up a station in some little town because the local authorities had passed an ordinance limiting the rate of speed.

Of course, the inference is that the railroads will make a flagging station out of Sedalia. That is exactly the way railroad companies used to do, and would now do but for legal restrictions and for the fact that they are managed by men of some business sense.

In these latter days the people have rebelled against all arbitrary and unjust methods, and we now have laws governing railroads, which deprive them of their power to be the arbitrary dictators of what they or we shall do.

We are of just as much use to the railroads as they are to us. Our in-

TESON WAS ACQUITTED

THE "UNWRITTEN LAW" AGAIN UPHELD AT ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI.

HE KILLED A MAN WHILE INSANE

Jury Acquitted Raymond G. Teson of the Murder of George Mayhan, Who Had Been Intimate With Mrs. Teson.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 13.—Raymond G. Teson was acquitted here Friday of the murder of George Mayhan last October. Emotional insanity and the "unwritten law" were the defense.

The jury found that Teson was insane at the time he killed Mayhan and that he had not fully recovered his sanity.

Judge Casteel will commit the slayer to the state asylum for the insane, to be confined there until he has recovered his reason.

Teson killed Mayhan in a grocery store at the eastern limits of the city. The slayer came from Kansas City in the morning, bought a revolver and searched for his victim several hours. He found Mayhan setting tile at a residence and chased him for fifteen minutes, firing repeatedly as he ran. Mayhan finally sought refuge in a grocery store, where he crouched behind a pile of flour. Teson shot him in the back and death resulted in five minutes.

It was proved that Teson had pursued Teson's wife here, in Lincoln and in Kansas City. Mayhan followed the Tesons to Kansas City a few days before the killing and Mrs. Teson accompanied him on his return to St. Joseph.

WILL DEDICATE CHURCH

The First M. E. Church, of Sedalia, By Dr. May, Sunday, July 21.

The trustees of the First M. E. church have secured the services of Rev. Dr. May, of Washington, D. C., a Methodist minister and one of the lecturers at the Chautauqua, to preach the dedicatory sermon and formally dedicate the building next Sunday morning.

This church was built some twenty years ago, but was not all paid for until last year.

Invitations are being sent out to all former pastors and a great time is anticipated.

The dedication of a Methodist church is always a great occasion. The public is most cordially invited.

Two Teachers Elected.

The teachers' committee of the board of education met Friday night and elected Miss Jane Harrison, of Columbia, teacher of German in the High school, to succeed Miss Louella Hoffman, resigned; and elected Daniel Shotts, of Columbia, teacher of physical geography in the High school.

Caught Many Fish.

W. A. Morgan, the traveling salesman, and wife, returned Saturday from a few days' successful fishing trip near McAllister Springs.

REBUTTAL HAS BEGUN

WITNESSES ARE INTRODUCED TO CONTRADICT TESTIMONY FOR DEFENSE.

DEFENSE SURPRISED THE STATE

Closed Its Case Saturday Very Suddenly, Much to the Astonishment of the Attorneys for the Prosecution.

Boise, Idaho, July 13.—With the opening of court in the Haywood case today Attorney Richardson sprung a decided sensation by announcing the defense rested. At adjournment yesterday afternoon Mr. Darrow had announced that a powder expert would be put on the stand today to testify in regard to the Bradley explosion in San Francisco. The change of plan took the state's attorneys entirely by surprise and there was some delay in beginning the case in rebuttal.

"We did not expect this," declared Mr. Hawley, leading counsel for the state, "and our witnesses were not notified to be here at this early hour."

Witnesses began to straggle in, however, and soon John C. Rise was recalled to the stand. He testified that in November, 1905, Orchard did not wear a moustache. This was in contradiction of one of the witnesses for the defense, who swore he heard Orchard make threats against Steunenberg, describing Orchard as a man with a large moustache.

The next witness was Dan Gailey, of Walla Walla, Wash. Gailey lost both feet in the Independence depot explosion. He lived in the Coeur d'Alenes in 1898 and 1900 and roomed a part of the time with Orchard. Gailey said that Dominick Flynn, who testified he was playing poker with Orchard April 19, 1899, the day of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan explosion—had told him in a conversation that he had not seen Orchard since February, 1899.

Cross examined by Richardson, Gailey said he had no present business.

"When did you go out of business?" "After I was injured at Victor."

"It was because you were injured that you wanted to come here and testify?"

"You know it was Orchard who says he blew you up?"

"Yes."

"But you have corresponded with Orchard since his arrest?"

"I have written to him several times."

"That's all."

R. E. Grimshaw, of Deadwood, S. D., was introduced by the state to identify a prison record showing that in 1889 John M. O'Neil, at present and for many years past, editor of the Miners' Magazine, was in the Dakota penitentiary. The defense objected on the ground that this was not proper rebuttal or impeachment, the witness O'Neil's attention not being called to the matter when he was on the stand. To allow the citation of authorities the witness was temporarily withdrawn.

In contradiction of the old soldier, John D. Elliott, who said he heard Orchard make threats against Governor Steunenberg while on a train, the state introduced several railway officials who produced records showing that the trains on which Elliott said he and Orchard traveled did not make the connections which Elliott had described as part of the journey. Elliott testified for the defense that he had traveled from Weiser, Idaho, to Boise, about November 28 or 29, 1905. The state called J. P. Stephenson, a hotel clerk of Salt Lake City, today, to testify that Orchard arrived at the Hotel Cullen November 25, 1905, and remained there three weeks. When asked to produce the records, the witness said he could only find Orchard's name entered in the books on November 25. It was the man's custom to pay for his room nightly in advance.

J. H. Moser, proprietor of the Kettie block rooming house in Denver, testified that Harry Orchard, under the name of Dempsey, stopped with him for two weeks late in July or August of 1904. Dr. McGee, a witness for the defense, testified several weeks ago that he saw Orchard in the Coeur d'Alenes at this time.

On cross examination he said he kept no record of guests and did not remember the names of any other transient guests in the summer of 1904. He was requested to come to Boise by a Pinkerton detective.

Interest in the rebuttal case was materially quickened by the calling of August Paulson, of Wallace, Idaho, one of the owners of the Hercules mine, in which Orchard once held a one-sixteenth interest. There was a long argument between counsel as to the witness's ability to tell when Orchard ceased to exercise any control of the mine. Paulson said he could not remember the exact date, but that after early in the spring of 1904 Orchard had nothing further to do with the property, his interest being succeeded by Dan Gardner, now a wealthy man from the production of the mine.

The defense claims that Orchard had a personal motive against Steunenberg because of the loss of this property when he was driven out of the country as a part of the 1899 troubles. The state claims Orchard sold his interest a year or so before the trouble started.

Court took recess at 11:30 o'clock in the Haywood trial until 1:30 o'clock.

FISH IS STILL FIGHTING

EX-PRESIDENT OF ILLINOIS CENTRAL ROAD HAS NOT GIVEN UP.

DIRECTORS MEETING WEDNESDAY

Former Chief Will Then Try to Oust Harriman From Control of the Great Property—Governor Will Attend.

Chicago, July 13.—Stuyvesant Fish, former president of the Illinois Central Railway company, who was put out of office by E. H. Harriman, has asked Governor Deneen to attend a meeting of the directors of the road in New York next Wednesday.

The governor, who is ex-officio a member of the board, has been informed his services and his vote will be important to the faction on the directorate which opposed the efforts of Harriman to get control of the road.

What Mr. Fish has in mind is not known, but it is evident he has not given up his fight against Harriman or his hope of deposing President James T. Harahan, whom Harriman put in to succeed him at the head of the company.

Mr. Fish has not told the governor it would be a certainty he would be needed in New York, but he has asked him to be ready for a quick trip, the plain inference being the ex-president has a pot on the fire, and is hoping it will come to a boil before it is learned a fire has been lighted.

There has been considerable railroad gossip to the effect that an effort was to be made to retire President Harahan, and this is one thing which Mr. Fish may have in mind to try, whether he contemplates getting back into the position himself or not.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY

It Was Given in Honor of Miss Ruth Harriman Friday Evening.

A birthday party was given by Little Miss Ruth Harriman Friday evening, it being her seventh birthday. About twenty of her little friends assembled at her home, 222 East Sixteenth street, and the evening was passed very pleasantly. Many games were played, after which refreshments of ice cream, cake, fruits and lemonade were served.

Miss Lucille Donohue was winner of the first prize. Master David Donohue won the first booby prize, and Miss Mada Rodecker was awarded the second booby prize. The presents were numerous and highly appreciated. About 6 o'clock the little guests departed for their respective homes, wishing Little Miss Ruth many more pleasant birthdays.

A Bicycle Struck Him.

The young son of "Jack" Bowers, a Missouri Pacific train dispatcher, is confined to his home, suffering from a severely lacerated head, caused by being run into and knocked down by a person riding a bicycle several days ago.

SPENCER TOOK IT BACK

HURRIEDLY WITHDREW STATEMENT IN KANSAS CITY OF BIG GAME BAG.

WELL-KNOWN ST. JOSEPH LAWYER

He Said He Had Shipped 47 Birds From Southern Missouri, but Retracted When "Game Warden" Appeared.

Friends of Judge O. M. Spencer, general solicitor of the Burlington railroad, know he was absent recently from St. Joseph for a few days, but few of them know what the railroad attorney did during his absence, says the St. Joseph News-Press of Friday. The story is leaking out now, and with a narrative of the events of the judge's vacation is related an incident of his stopover in Kansas City on the return trip.

From all accounts, it is understood that Judge Spencer hid himself to Southern Missouri, where game laws are lax and wardens never annoy. Soon after he established headquarters in the game district, several local friends partook of all sorts of birds, although no one will admit that they were shipped to St. Joseph by the attorney. When the judge's train pulled into the union passenger station at Kansas City, he was greeted by several of his friends among the legal fraternity.

"Yes, been down south doing a little hunting," he admitted, in response to a question.

"Got forty-seven birds," he continued, when some one asked him the extent of his good fortune. "Yes, sir," he continued, "I bagged forty-seven beauties. Shipped 'em up home to St. Joseph to some friends."

"Did I understand you to say that you shot forty-seven birds a few days ago down here in Missouri," interrupted an imposing appearing individual, who stepped up to the little group. Judge Spencer had not noticed one of his friends a moment before hurriedly withdrawing the newcomer in another part of the station and holding a rapid whispered conversation with him.

"Yes, that's just what I did," replied Judge Spencer.

"Well, I'm the game warden, and under your own admission, which you have made in the presence of all of these gentlemen, you are guilty of forty-seven separate and distinct infractions of the law."

"Well, do you know who I am?" savagely returned Judge Spencer.

The "warden" faltered. He didn't know how the joke was going to turn out, and he began to fear that he had taken liberties with some celebrity, and that he was in for a "calling."

"No, I can't say that I do know," he ventured, looking around to see if his aiders and abettors in the joke intended to extricate him from his awkward position.

"I'll tell you who I am," said Spencer. "I'm the damndest liar in Missouri."

GAVE HIM A LIFE TERM

A Man in Indiana, Where Murderers Are Never Executed.

Muncie, Ind., July 13.—In disposing of Tony Miller, the wife slayer, in the circuit court, Delaware county maintained a record of having never sentenced a murderer to death, though a hundred or more murders have occurred here. Miller entered a plea of guilty, and was given a life sentence in Michigan City prison at hard labor.

The young man claimed that he was goaded to the crime after seeing his wife hugged and kissed by Orin Kennedy, the man Miller returned to kill after making good his escape.

This last move led to his capture by a posse of officers, who chased him to a box car, from which barricade he fought with a gun till shot down by Sheriff Perdue. Miller married the woman at Lima, Ohio.

Home From Fishing Trip.

John and James Collins, Joe Gold, Will Waldman, Will Quigley and Tom Hurley returned Saturday from a few days' fishing visit on the Lamine river.

Party at the Country Club.

Members of the Sedalia Country club gave a party at the club house Saturday night, in compliment to Miss Minnie Crafton, of Jefferson City, who is visiting Miss Mildred Letimer. Tomorrow night a small party of friends will enjoy a drive to Smithton, the affair being given for Miss Crafton also.

Left to Attend a Funeral.

Mrs. G. W. Stratton, of 309 East Third street, left Friday night for Sheldon, Mo., to attend the funeral of her nephew, Edgar Hughes, who died Friday, aged 26 years, leaving a widow and one child. Mrs. Stratton will remain for a visit after the funeral.

Mashed Two of His Fingers.

Val Clark, employed at Crawford's bottling works, painfully lacerated and mashed the ring and middle fingers on his right hand while at work Saturday and will not be able to resume work for some time.

STATE'S POULTRY SHOW

SEDALIA CAN LAND THE EXHIBITION IF HER PEOPLE CARE FOR IT.

A LETTER TO MR. LEON H. ARCHIAS

The State Secretary Writes to Know What Inducements the City Can Offer—The Show Will Be Held in December.

Mr. L. H. Archias is in receipt of the following self-explanatory letter, which he will refer to the Sedalia Business Men's association, and to the Democrat-Sentinel it looks as if the prize was well worth going after:

Slater, Mo., July 9, 1907. L. H. Archias, Sedalia, Mo. Dear Sir: I have been requested by the state poultry board to communicate with you in regard to holding our next state poultry show and institute in your city. We don't ask any bonus of the town further than we expect to be furnished with a well lighted hall, fuel, lights, feed and sufficient help to care for poultry. What have you to offer along this line?

How large is your hall, how lighted, upstairs or down, how far from business section, etc.? Could not possibly do with less than 5,000 square feet of floor space, could use twice as much. Show will be held from December 10th to 14th.

If the show is located in your city we will bring 2,000 birds, and several hundred people from all parts of Missouri and all neighboring states. Will build up the poultry interests in your community, besides be a great advertisement for your town, as several hundred catalogues will be issued and scattered far and near. Let me know at once what you have to offer. Don't ask for a bonus, as the state gives us $2,000 per year. I remain, yours very truly—T. E. Quisenberry, state secretary.

ENTERTAINED FOR DAUGHTERS

Mrs. William Arenson Observed the Birthdays of Children.

Mrs. William Arenson gave a party yesterday for her daughters, Ruth and Irene, whose birthdays were yesterday and today. There were seventeen little folks present as follows: Ruth Yanow, Morris Tepper, Katherine Rast, Goldie Arenson, Harold Arenson, Ruby Arenson, Lottie Emery, Herrick and Julia Tredway, Charlotte Baker, Fannie Henlen and Willard Norris.

Games of all kinds were played and refreshments of ice cream was served.

Injunction Still in Force.

Jefferson City, July 13.—The supreme court today denied the application filed yesterday by Attorney General Hadley for a writ to dissolve the injunction recently granted by the St. Louis circuit court to prevent the enforcement of the state grain weighing law. This action of the supreme court leaves the injunction in force.

HE CHOSE HIS OWN BRIDE

DECLINED TO MARRY YOUNG WOMAN SELECTED BY HIS RELATIVES.

DISOWNED BY THE ELDER DATILO

But the Wealthy Italian's Son, Who Married a School Teacher Over in the Buckeye State, Doesn't Mind it Much.

Hamilton, Ohio, July 13.—Gus Datilo, the wealthy young Italian of this city, who was to have married Miss Concetta Pereno at St. Joseph's church, Dayton, Ohio, her home, but failed of appearance, although guests were waiting at the altar, is now the husband of Miss Lelia Anderson, a pretty young school teacher of this city.

Instead of going to Dayton to wed Miss Pereno, Datilo, with Miss Anderson, accompanied by her mother, hurried to Batavia, Ohio, where a marriage license was procured.

Immediately after the license had been issued they drove to Stonelick to be married by a Catholic priest, but the latter refused to officiate because the groom lived in another parish. The lovers then journeyed to Williamsburg, where they were married by a Methodist minister.

As the result of his jilting Miss Pereno and marrying Miss Anderson, Datilo has been disowned by his father, a wealthy fruit dealer of this city, relatives say. None of the Datilo family would discuss the wedding.

But Datilo and his pretty bride say they don't care whether or not he has been disowned. They say they love each other, and that's enough.

According to Datilo and his bride, he never was engaged to marry Miss Pereno. They assert that the match was one arranged by the heads of the Datilo and Pereno families without regard as to whether or not the young folks approved of each other.

Datilo admits that on the day preceding the planned wedding with Miss Pereno he procured a marriage license at Dayton, but declares he did so at the request of the parents. Immediately thereafter he handed the document over to Miss Pereno's father, he says, and departed, that on the morrow he might wed the woman he loved.

He declares that his course was fully justified.

KILLED BY LIVE WIRE

And Wife Struck by Lightning as She Hears the News.

Columbus, Ind., July 13.—R. F. Gottschalk, aged 45, president of the Columbus Street Railway company for fifteen years, was electrocuted here yesterday.

A span of wire had parted from the trolley and Mr. Gottschalk attempted to splice the broken wire. He slipped from the ladder and, grasping the broken wire, he carried it to the ground with him.

The wire wound itself around his body and 600 volts of electricity coursed through him, burning him horribly in the presence of a number of persons, who dared not lend assistance lest they, too, would get killed.

When a relative was telephoning the sad news to the widow the latter was struck by lightning and severely injured. She is in a critical condition.

Will Have a Picnic July 23.

A committee of seven members of Fidelity council No. 53, K. and L. of S., also a committee of the same number from Queen City council of the K. and L. of S. are arranging to hold a picnic at Thatcher's ford, on Flat creek, on the afternoon and evening of July 23.

The affair will be for members of the lodges and friends. The party will leave the court house square during the afternoon and returning here will reach home about 11 p. m.

He's a Motorman Now.

F. W. Hopper, ex-conductor and police officer, has accepted a position as street car motorman for the Light and Traction Co.

GOING ROUND THE HORN.

Whether we have war with Japan in the next ten months or the next ten years, or not at all, the trip of the battleship squadron around Cape Horn will be a good object lesson to the American public on the necessity of digging the Panama canal. The fleet that Admiral Evans will take from the Atlantic to the Pacific probably will be as good as could be gotten together, but a 13,000 ton ship is a more severe test than a battleship is usually called upon to endure, and it is not likely that the whole of the American fleet will arrive at San Francisco in as good condition as was the Oregon when she made her famous run from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

Were the canal a reality the tedious voyage around Cape Horn would not be necessary, and ships could be transferred from one coast to the other in this country without either much time or trouble. Thewater way across the isthmus would reduce the essential size of the American navy at least one-third. This would be an item of moment, not only in the cost of the fleet, but in its maintenance.
Strategically, the canal will be of more use to this country than to any other in the world, and the sooner we get it done, merely from motives of self-protection, the better it will be for us.

THE SUPPLY OF COAL.

It is not very encouraging news that is handed out to the public from the geological survey just now. The survey announces that the anthracite coal supply of the country is only good for seventy-five years more.
Of course, this won't affect the most of us very much, as by that time we will be where we won't need coal or will have more than we want.
But the prospect is not cheering for future generations. The calculation has been made on the basis of the known coal supply of the country, the present annual consumption and the normal growth of the population.

It is further stated that there is no prospect of anthracite ever being any cheaper than it is at present, a piece of gratuitous information on which the coal trust had the geological survey beat several years ago.

But hope is held out in the fact that there is enough soft coal to last for several generations more, and this ought to be good news for the south, as much of it is in that region and still undeveloped.

HOW ABOUT THE WEEDS?

The Democrat-Sentinel hasn't as yet noticed any energetic move on the part of the administration towards cutting the weeds that abound throughout the city.

This nuisance was referred to in a gentle and kind way, without venom and without abuse, very recently, with the sincere hope that proper action would speedily be taken. Nothing seems to have been done, however.

Is there any good reason for this lack of action?

Some persons are really benefited by a protective tariff; and many people, who are not benefited, imagine they are. Mr. Carnegie, Mr. Frick, Mr. Schwab, Mr. Corey, Mr. Thaw and Mr. Hartji were all made millionaires by the tariff. In a few years they made, in all, more than a billion dollars out of it. But, friend, how much have you made out of it? Have you made enough to quit work on?
Have you made enough out of this blessed tariff to pay for a home and set your children up in business?

Mayor Schmitz, of San Francisco, says that he will sue the city for his salary for the time he has spent in jail. Considering the things he did to the city while he was out, it might be an economical arrangement for the city to agree to pay him his salary
as long as he will stay in jail.

A man up in West Virginia the other day started to beat his wife
when she drew a revolver and killed him. If he had time to reflect on the incident at all he probably came to the conclusion that he hit the wrong woman.

The time is ripe for some enterprising bartender to make his fortune by serving something under the name of "Fairbanks cocktail." It would probably be a pretty cold proposition at that.

It is reported that the telephone girls in Detroit have gone on strike.
Well, if they are like most telephone girls that will be a relief to subscribers, anyway.

The dissolution of the Russian douma seems merely to have carried the revolutionary talk into the provinces, where it is less under the government control.

Those Tokyo war rumors are not at all surprising. Being a yellow people, the Japanese would naturally have a yellow press.

The Brownsville discussion seems to have assumed the position denominated in the military manuals as
"As you were."

Colonel Goethals continues to dig the Panama canal just as though half the papers in the country had not retired him already.

The contrition of Count Boni de Castellane savors very much of a gentleman who has lost his meal ticket.

Mr. Roosevelt brands his heirs apparent very much as he used to brand his steers.

HE NEVER HAD A VACATION

And Now Constable Beard Doesn't Know What to Do With One.

John A. Beard, constable in Justice Festus O. Miller's court, doesn't want a vacation, says the Kansas City Star.
Yesterday the county court granted Justice Miller's court a holiday for the first time.

"I's been in office eleven years, five years as marshal of Sedalia, Mo., and six years as constable in this court," said Mr. Beard, "and I have never had a vacation. Now that I've got one I don't know what to do with my-

NOT CONVICT PRETTY WOMAN

Is the Excuse of the Police for Not Making an Arrest.

Galveston, Texas, July 13.—Though the Galveston police profess to believe Mrs. Herman Ritter, beautiful and aged 29, knows something of the murder of her husband, Herman Ritter, aged 60, a wealthy St. Louis lawyer, she has not been arrested.

The reason given by the police is that it is hard to get a Texas jury to convict a pretty woman, especially a widow. She has been quizzed by the police, as has also John T. Evans, of Fort Worth.

Ritter died from the effects of a sleeping potion. The police believe he took the first dose, and that it was given to him until death was certain. For twenty hours he was unconscious, and aid was not summoned until the end was near. On the night of his death Mrs. Ritter was the jolliest of a bathing party in the Gulf.

Will Establish Branch.

W. E. Stanley, manager of the Sedalia Undertaking company, has consummated a deal whereby he purchased the Petty Undertaking company, of East Second street, and will ship the stock of supplies to Otterville tomorrow, where on the following day he will open a branch undertaking company to be known as the Otterville Undertaking company, the only one at that town.

James W. Spahr, of Moberly, for eighteen years a licensed undertaker and embalmer, will manage the new business.

Death of Mrs. Clayburg.

Earl Brummet went to Warrensburg Saturday morning, called there by the death of his cousin, Mrs. Jennie Clayburg, a former Sedalia lady, who died at her home in the Quarry
City, at 10 o'clock Friday night, aged about 50 years.

Funeral services were held last afternoon, and interment made in the cemetery there. Deceased is survived by two sons, Claude and Emmett Clayburg, both of whom are well known here.

Out-of-Doors Dining.

A number of the operators employed at the Queen City telephone office, in honor of their chief, Miss Rose Hemenway, will partake of a six o'clock dining at the State Fair grounds tomorrow evening, the affair being arranged merely to show the respect held by the young girls for Miss Hemenway.

Basket lunches will be taken with the party and a delightful time is expected by all fortunate enough to attend.

Little Boy Injured.

The five-year-old son of Eugene O'Brien, of 1209 South Montauque avenue, while playing at home at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, fell, and a sharp-pointed stick which the lad held in his mouth badly lacerated the palate. Dr. Nasse dressed the injury.

Sabbath in the Country.

Mrs. Bell Asher and all roomers and boarders at her home, Miss Clara Canning and the Gorrell sisters, Misses Nell Connor and Delia Blakeley, New McNeil and Hanley O'Con-

where they will spend the day.

been at Kansas City for several days,
was arrested by Deputy Constable Drake Saturday and sent to jail for twenty days by Judge Rickman for lewd conduct.

Orange Jelly.

One-third box gelatin, one and a half cups sugar, three sour oranges. Put the gelatin in soak in two tablespoons of cold water. Cut the oranges and press out the juice. Put into a measure holding a pint and fill up with boiling water, then add sugar and gelatin and when dissolved place where it will boil quickly. Put in the peels and let it boil five minutes; strain into molds, let it stand for ten or 12 hours.
Nice with whipped cream.

When You Clean the Stove.

The kitchen stove can be cleaned with newspapers; but when cleaning do it thoroughly. Many tops of stoves receive a daily polish and yet the sides are covered with dust and grease.

Let the oven be thoroughly cleaned with a brush kept for that purpose, then nicely washed, and your bread and cake will have a purer flavor.

WITH A PICK HANDLE

The Young Husband Beat His Lifelong Friend to Death.

Ashland, Ky., July 13.—Daniel Mc-Knight, aged 50 years, was beaten to death with a pick handle by William Darby, a young husband inspired by jealousy. They had been friends for years.

The crime was committed in the presence of a crowd of men, but no effort was made to save McKnight from the fury of his assailant.

St. Louis Clothing Co.'s Clearing Sale.

On page 4 of this morning's issue there appears the announcement of the St. Louis Clothing Co.'s midsummer clearing sale—a semi-annual event very much looked for by hundreds of provident people, who in the past have taken advantage of these sales, knowing from former experience that the St. Louis Clothing Co.
always gives the bargains which they advertise.

developed into serious complications,

terest is their interest, and their interest ought to be ours also. We should be just to them, but we should also compel them to be just to us.

I am inclined to think that their managers are disposed to be just, but the sure way to get our rights is to stand up for them in an open and manly way, and not go toadying and fawning around them as though we were afraid of them.

They can't afford to fight us. We can compel them to spend thousands of dollars annually in complying with lawful regulations which we might impose upon them. We could compel them to put in gates and watchmen at every crossing in town, and we could harass and embarrass them tremendously with local regulations
if we should be driven to fight.

This tempest in a tea pot which the Democrat-Sentinel has stirred up is pure sensationalism, without excuse in fact or reason, and as unsubstantial as moonshine.

No person in authority in either railroad ever intimated that we were in danger of losing the division.
This line of talk proceeds from certain employees, who can't order a lead pencil for the railroad without getting the written approval of a half dozen superiors.

There are a great number of "Smart Ales" holding jobs on railroads, who delight to blow about what the railroad companies will do to people. Now and then they find an easy victim in some credulous and timid person.

The editor of the Democrat-Sentinel, being by nature excitable and erratic, "blew up" when he heard this talk, and forgot to apply his common sense and gumption to the situation. He wrote his editorial during one of his brain storms, and while his superheated imagination had carried him beyond the realm of reality and into the dreamland of nightmares and hobgoblins. If he will wake up and open his eyes to the facts, his fears will vanish and his nerves will become calm again.—

Fall Opening of Hill's Business College.

While students may enter at any time, our fall opening will be on Monday, September 2, 1907. We wish to say that if you are expecting to enter school it will be to your advantage to enter on or before this date. Our special rates should be taken advantage of by those who are interested in a business education.
Forty-five dollars will purchase our regular $60 life scholarship in either the shorthand or commercial department, and $70 will purchase our regular $90 combination life scholarship, good in both departments. These rates positively withdrawn on September 1, 1907.

Those enrolling at once will be given the privilege of instruction by mail until they are able to enter school. In this way a student can complete our course in from four weeks to two months less than the regular time, which means additional saving in the amount of their board, room and incidental expenses for the time saved.

H. B. C., at Sedalia, Mo., is the only business college in Missouri that is endorsed by the state superintendent of schools, the president of the State Teachers' association, the presidents of the state normal schools, the teachers' college of the University of Missouri, the university high school examiner, and the superintendents of schools of such cities as Kansas City, St. Joseph, Joplin, Carthage and Sedalia. In fact, Hill's Business college alone has the general, cordial endorsement of the school men of the state.

We have enrolled students this year from twelve different states and territories, and over a thousand of our students are holding good positions in twenty-five states and territories. They are scattered from New York City on the east to Los Angeles on the west, from Chicago on the north to New Orleans on the south, and in every instance they are giving satisfaction.

Bellbar to Race Again.

The great Bellbar, 37180, registered in A. T. R. volume 17, is at the state fair grounds this season, but this season is to be his last here, as he will race next year in the grand circuit and will not be in the stud.

Parties desiring to breed to a race horse will do well to investigate the breeding of Bellbar. He is a son of Esobar, by Expedition, by Election-eer 125, by Hambletonian, 10. His dam is Rhodena, by Edward F. Bell, by Ashland Wilkes 2291. So there cannot be a more fashionable bred stallion in Missouri or any other state.

Bellbar as an individual is a splendid representative of his superb breeding. He stands 16 hands high, weighs 1250 pounds, and is remarkably stout at every point. He is smooth in conformation for an animal his size. His color is a dark mahogany bay, with black points.
Bellbar worked a little while in the

Closing Out Sale of Seasonable Merchandise

The gratifying results of the first four days of this sale forcibly emphasizes the fact that lowest values are taken into account. The store that indisputably backs its advertisements with values as represented---as does the Globe---is certain to receive the bulk of the public's patronage.

High Grade Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings at Cost and Lower!

Why This Unparalleled, Unprecedented Value-Giving Sale is Made Possible

The backward season left us heavily stocked and we were forced to adopt this drastic method of disposing of our stocks. Cost, profit or value is not considered. Every dollar's worth of goods must be turned into cash. New, seasonable merchandise, goods that are in demand right now will be sold at prices far below their real value. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Merchandise in Demand Right Now Reduced to the Limit

Too much stock! Too much money tied up! Time's too short to wait for profit! They must go in the Great Closing Out Sale. $22,500 worth of Seasonable Merchandise slaughtered to the limit. You know our reputation and you know our goods. We have simply cut the prices to the limit. All thoughts of profit have been forgotten.

This event means the placing on sale at prices that do not cover the cost of producing our stock of Men's, Youths', Children's and Women's Clothes. It is the unalterable rule of this store never to carry over goods from one season to another and therefore to open each season with a stock fresh from the makers. Each season is made to stand on its own merits—show its own profits—stand its own losses. In pursuance of this principle we are frequently called upon to sacrifice not only prospective profits, but profits we may have made on goods already sold. This is one of the occasions, as a careful reading of the subjoined values will conclusively prove.

SLUMP IN SALOONS

In Ohio Under the Increased License Was Only 409.

Columbus, Ohio, July 13.—According to the figures just compiled by Auditor of State Gilbert, the net decrease of saloons on May 28, as reported by the numerous county auditors in Ohio, as having neglected to make application for a renewal of the Aiken tax, is 409.

This is based on a comparison of last year, when there were 9,992 places where liquor was retailed, with 9,583 making applications this year. In Hamilton county the net decrease was 238, and in the Chillicothe and Athens district, composed of the counties outside of Hamilton, in that section of the state, the reduction was 168. The gain in Cuyahoga county was 91, while the loss in the Toledo and Cleveland district was 94.

Increasing the liquor tax from $350 to $1,000 did not work as outlined by its champions before the General Assembly, who believed that the falling off would be at least 40 per cent.

However, it has proved a remarkable revenue producer, as the strong boxes of the state treasurer are bulging with funds, eagerly being watched by trustees of the various state institutions, who will find some excuse for additional appropriations in their annual reports.

HE SAW ANOTHER WORLD

Walter Dirck's Strange Forecast of Death Came True.

Warsaw, Ind., July 13.—After telling his parents that he had an awful dream to the effect that he had died and had been carried away to some new world Walter Dirck, aged 11 years, the son of Leonard Dirck, a railroad employe of Burkett, this county, went to a couch, lay down and died.

While attending the funeral of a friend at Palestine cemetery the boy turned to his parents and remarked that he would be the next to be placed in a casket and lowered into a grave in the same cemetery.

His hearers were amazed. On returning to his home he sought out his friends and asked forgiveness for any wrongs he might have done them.

After accomplishing his mission he returned home, retired for the night, and in a vision had a premonition of his death.

Several years ago the boy was struck by lightning, and since then he has been subject to spasms, which, it is believed, caused his death.

Hill's Business College Notes.

About a month ago the head of the department of athletics of the University of Missouri, called us up on the long distance telephone and asked us to recommend some one to fill the position of secretary and chief clerk in his department. On our nomination, Mr. Edgar C. Nelson, of Buncheon, Mo., went to Columbia to apply for the position in person. He has just been notified that the board of regents at its last meeting selected him for this important position at a salary of $75 to begin with.

The way in which this position was offered to us, and the character of the position itself, speaks more for the graduates of Hill's Business college than the filling of many ordinary positions. During the past year there has not been a single graduate of our stenographic or combination course who has not been given an opportunity to accept a position at $50 or more per month.

Mr. A. E. Taylor, of Lamonte, Mo., left for St. Louis on the night of the Fourth. He writes us that the next day after he arrived he accepted a position in the general offices of the Missouri Pacific railway as book-keeper in the auditor's department at a salary of $50 per month to begin with. We are informed that there are hundreds of applicants who have never had business training enrolled with the various employment bureaus of St. Louis, but no one but trained men can secure these positions.

Miss Libbie Quinn left last week for Kansas City to accept a position as stenographer, which was secured through the influence of an old student of our school.

Miss Grace Martin spent a pleasant hour at the college the other day. She is at home on a visit from Kansas City, where she went after graduating in April. She has a fine position with Bradstreet, and sees many of our old students each week and tells us that they are getting along well.

Played With a Match.

Evansville, Ind., July 13.—Luella Covington, aged 2½ years, found a match and there was a gasoline stove in the house. The two got into juxtaposition, there was an explosion and the baby was fatally burned.

Ice Every Day.

Some kind of nice ice or sherbert served every day at the Arlington fountain.

Will Pitch at Windsor.

H. C. Henry, a Missouri Pacific machinist, went to Windsor last night and from there goes to Versailles to pitch for a baseball team of that place today.

MORGAN A WITNESS

Financier Makes Denial of Knowledge of London Woman Prisoner.

London, July 13.—J. Pierpont Morgan appeared in the West London police court today as a witness in the case of Mrs. Josephine Leslie, who was arrested at Newmarket July 4, charged with defrauding members of widely known families by false pretenses and representing herself to be a friend of Mr. Morgan. The latter repudiated all knowledge of Mrs. Leslie.

Mr. Morgan said he did not write to her advising her to join one of his syndicates, and never invited Mrs. Leslie, as alleged, to dine at his son's house. As a matter of fact, Mr. Morgan added, he was in New York at the time of the alleged invitation.

On cross-examination, Mr. Morgan said he did not remember any invitation being sent to Mr. Easterlick, the prisoner's father, for a public dinner which Mr. Morgan gave in New York. Mr. Morgan was sure that his firm had no customer of that name, and he said it was improbable that any of his business friends would speak of investments returning 12 per cent, which Mrs. Leslie said was to be the interest on money invested in the alleged Morgan syndicate.

"I do not know many of that character," said Mr. Morgan, in conclusion.

After the plaintiff, Miss Annie Blount, had testified briefly that she was induced to give Mrs. Leslie $42,500 on the strength of letters purporting to have been written by Mr. Morgan, promising large returns, the case was adjourned.

A Baltimore Cashier Convicted.

Baltimore, Md., July 13.—John W. H. Geiger, late cashier of the Canton National bank of this city, was this morning found guilty in the United States court of abstracting and fraudulently using funds of the bank. There were forty-seven counts in the indictment. The case was given to the jury yesterday evening and its deliberations extended far into the night. Sentence was suspended pending a motion for a new trial.

An Important Announcement.

Attention is called to the page announcement of the July clearance sale at M. Chasoff's, which will be found on page 5 of this morning's Democrat-Sentinel. This is an annual event at this store and is significantly important because of its wide scope of price reduction. Chasoff's inaugurated this clearance in July several years ago and each year the event has grown until now it attracts buyers from all over Central Missouri. A perusal of the advertisement this morning and comparing it with those of past years will show clearly the importance the announcement carries with it.

Voted 5 Per Cent Dividend.

The directors of the Sedalia Under-taking company met at the firm's headquarters Saturday, and among other matters attended to voted a 5 per cent dividend on the company's profits for the past six months.

THE OFFICERS OF OHIO

To Get Reilly's Estate if Connell Finds No Heirs in Ireland.

Lisbon, Ohio, July 13.—Former State Senator C. C. Connell, of this city, started yesterday for Ireland, where, as attorney for the state, he will assist Attorney-General Wade H. Ellis in looking up the family connections of the late General James W. Reilly, of Wellsville, who left a fortune but no known heirs.

Before leaving Attorney Connell filed an answer for the state in a case commenced in court here nearly a year ago, in which a number of alleged heirs set forth their claims by petition and answer.

Attorney Connell's answer denies the validity of these claims and alleges that all of General Reilly's wealth, estimated to be about $250,000, of right belongs to the state.

Flower-Barnett*THE HOLY CITY

Famous Cantata to Be Given Here
Early in August.

Last Thursday evening a number of our leading singers met in the parlors of the First Baptist church to complete arrangements for the production of "The Holy City," by Alfred Gaul, one of the most beautiful of all the sacred cantatas.

The chorus will be under the direction of George B. Godkins, one of the best-known festival conductors in the country and an accomplished singer and teacher of voice.

Mr. Godkins recently had charge of the great May festivals at Richmond, Va., supported by the Boston festival orchestra.

So much interest has already been shown in the coming production that a large chorus is practically assured. There will be no expense to those participating in the cantata. All singers desiring a membership should report at the regular rehearsals at the Baptist church, which will be held on Monday and Thursday evenings of each week.

REGARDING RAILROADS

LOCOMOTIVE OF TODAY IS COMPARED WITH THAT OF 76 YEARS AGO.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

A comparison between the latest passenger locomotive built for the Pennsylvania railroad and the oldest locomotive in America shows the progress made since the first railroad train was put into service at Bordentown, N. J., on the Camden and Amboy railroad, November 12, 1831, nearly seventy-six years ago. The oldest locomotive, the "John Bull," is still intact at the National Museum in Washington.

The locomotive just received from the shops by the Pennsylvania and put into trial service on the lines west of Pittsburgh is of the Pacific type. Its pulling capacity is about half as great again as that of the Atlantic type, and it is the most powerful passenger locomotive in use on the Pennsylvania lines. On the division of the road where there are heavy grades it will handle 10-car and 12-car trains, while the Atlantic type hauls only eight cars.

Locomotive and tender, when the latter is loaded with coal and water, weigh 409,000 pounds. The "John Bull," loaded for operations, weighs 24,625 pounds, about one-eighteenth as much as the new Pacific.

The new locomotive has six driving wheels eighty inches in diameter. The driving wheels of the old engine are only fifty-four inches in diameter.

The boiler of the new Pacific contains 323 tubes, each 21 feet long, making a total of more than a mile and a third of 2 1/4 inch pipes, through which the flames and heat from the fire box pass on their way to the stack.

The heating surface of the tubes is 4,427 square feet, and this space is heated to a high temperature to convert the water in the boiler into steam at a pressure of 205 pounds per square inch. The tubes in the "John Bull" are 7 1/2 feet long and the heating surface is only 213 square feet.

With its new locomotive the Pennsylvania expects to handle through passenger trains more satisfactorily to the public and more economically to itself.

HE IS FIGHTING COMBINE

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF KANSAS
FILES SUIT AGAINST INSURANCE COMPANIES.

CLAIMS THAT RATES ARE FIXED

Sixty Companies Are Involved and All May Be Declared Out of Business in State if the Suit Goes Through.

Topeka, Kan., July 13.—Judge A. W. Dana, of the county district court today granted a temporary injunction, asked for by Attorney General Jackson, restraining the sixty-two foreign fire insurance companies doing business in Kansas from using a rate sheet compiled by Charles N. Eldridge, which it is alleged is in violation of the Kansas anti-trust law.

The suits are based on information furnished by Superintendent of Insurance Barnes, who alleged that the bureau of which Eldridge is the head arbitrarily fixed the cost and rate of insurance in the state, which is now extortionately high, and that it almost totally abolished all competition.

This bureau is a successor to the one put out of business by former Insurance Commissioner Webb McNall. The attorney general will at a later date ask to have the injunction made permanent.

General Jackson went further than to ask the suspension, as he specifically asked that if the defendant companies fail to comply with the orders of the court that a receiver be appointed to take charge of each company that is involved.

A LAST EFFORT FOR PEACE

San Francisco, July 13.—With the arrival last night of the United States labor commissioner, Charles B. Neill, of Washington, and Vice Presidents J. Koenekamp, M. J. Reidy and Joseph M. Sullivan, of the national executive committee of the telegraphers, the result of the final effort to prevent an extension of the telegraphers' strike probably will be known by tomorrow or Monday.

Commissioner Neill lost no time in getting in touch with the local situation and last night held conferences in Oakland with representatives of both sides to the controversy. At the conclusion of a conference lasting one hour with I. N. Miller, assistant general superintendent of the Western Union, the commissioner declined to say what the outcome of the meeting was. It is expected that he will meet General Superintendent Storer, of the Postal company today.

A mass meeting of the telegraphers will be held in Oakland tonight, which Commissioner Neill said he would attend. The officials of both telegraph companies have also been invited.

A MOTHER'S SHAME TOLD

BY A LITTLE DAUGHTER WHILE ON WITNESS STAND IN A MURDER CASE.

A POWDER GIVEN THOSE NOW DEAD

Child Is Only Eight Years Old, but She Told Her Story in a Straightforward Manner and Is Carried Conviction.

Chicago, Ill., July 13.—Bertha Vrzal, a mere babe of eight years, was the star witness yesterday against Herman Billik, charged with the murder of five members of her family, and the story she told in Judge Barnes' court caused a sensation among the spectators. When she told of the improper actions of her mother and Billik intuitively she seemed to realize the shame of it all, and she hardly spoke above a whisper.

The prosecution scored point after point during the afternoon, and Billik plainly indicated how well he realized it. At the hour of adjournment his forehead was beady with perspiration, and he was so nervous he could not remain still for a moment.

The appearance of Bertha Vrzal on the stand was the most dramatic feature of the trial since its start. Dressed in simple white lawn, her brown curls falling on her shoulders, she told Judge Barnes she knew what it meant to tell a lie, and knew she would be punished after she was dead if she told anything but the truth. Judge Barnes then declared her a competent witness.

Questioned slowly by Assistant State's Attorney Popham, she gradually unfolded the story of the dark tragedy of her family.

"I saw Mr. Billik bring a white powder and some white pills to our house before papa died," she said. "He gave papa some of the powder."

"How did he give it to your papa?" asked Mr. Popham.

"In a teaspoon," and the little girl left the witness stand and walking down to the jury box, showed to each juror just how much it was, indicating about a quarter of a spoonful.

"He brought more medicine when Mary was sick," she continued. "This time it was in a black box, and when Rosie was sick he brought it in a tin box. It was always a white powder, but I never tasted it."

"Did Billik seem a good friend to your mamma?" asked the assistant state's attorney.

"Yes, sir, he seemed to love her very much. One time I saw him put his arms around her and hug her. They always sat close together when he was there."

"What happened after your papa died?"

"He told me that he was to be my papa now, and that I should love him just as I had my own papa, but I didn't."

"Did you ever see you mother give Billik any money?"

"Yes, sir, many times."

"How about the day before your mother died?"

"Mr. Billik came there and sat with her close to her bed. I was there, too. He held mamma's hand and whispered something to her. She gave him some paper money, but I don't know how much."

The County Got Its $105.

County Clerk M. L. Imhoff Saturday received from the state auditor a check for $105 in payment of the state's one-half for wolf scalp bounties, there having been seventy scalps turned over to County Clerk Imhoff during the years 1903-4-5-6-7.

THE EXPERIENCE OF MANY WOMEN

Demonstrate Beyond All Cavil That Pe-ru-na Is a Safe and Useful Household Remedy.

Read What the Women Say.

Chronic Hoarseness.

Mrs. Delta C. Cameron, Healdsburg, Cal., member Daughters of America, writes:

"Having tried many remedies for chronic catarrh of the bronchial tubes, and not receiving any benefit, I began to think there was no help for me until I began to use Peruna."

"In a short time the bronchial tubes began to clear, I did not have that 'frog in my throat' continually, my voice was not nearly so husky, and the wheezing noise disappeared."

"I was soon able to believe that I was entirely free from catarrh, and as this was several months ago, I do not believe that it will return."

The above group of women could be multiplied by ten thousand without reaching the number that have been helped by taking Peruna.

A Wasting Disease.

Mrs. Roxa Tyler, 6210 Madison Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Vice President of the Illinois Woman's Alliance, writes: "During the past year I gradually lost flesh and strength until I was unable to perform my work properly. I tried different remedies, and finally Peruna was suggested to me. "It gave me new life and restored my strength. I cannot speak too highly of it."

Catarrh of the Stomach.

Miss Emily Koch, 914 Michigan Ave., Sheboygan, Wis., writes:

"I can heartily recommend Peruna for catarrh of the stomach. I had tried many things which did me no good and as a last resort I got a bottle of Peruna."

"I only regret that I did not try it before I forced so much bad stuff into my stomach. It has entirely cured me and as a preventative I always keep a bottle in the house."

"I gladly recommend it to all who are afflicted as I was."

Bronchial Catarrh.

Mrs. Wm. Hohmann, 569 N. Paulina St., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I suffered with catarrh of the bronchial tubes and had a terrible cough ever since a child. When a child it was supposed to be whooping cough or the croup, but as I got older it got worse."

"After a while it got so bad I had to cough both winter and summer. Finally I burst a blood vessel in my throat from the strain of coughing, next a blood vessel in my stomach, so I kept getting worse and doctoring, and even then could get no relief."

"I went to a dispensary for treatment, but it all done me no good. At last I could never lie on my back. I would sit up until two or three o'clock in the morning before I could close my eyes. Then of course, I thought, and everybody else that I had consumption."

"Reading the papers about Peruna I decided to try it without the least hope that it would do me any good. But after taking three bottles I noticed a change. My appetite got better, so I kept on, never got discouraged."

"Now I can lie on my back and sleep all night, and you may well think how thankful I am for Peruna."

NEW YORK FASHION LETTER

BY MME. MANN PAYZANT

Special to Democrat-Sentinel.

New York, July 13.—Among the latest of the most smartest creations of New York dressmakers are cotton kimona pianoforte frocks, with square or round necks, and fascinating "guimpes" or underslips of embroidered muslin or lawn and lace insertion. One of these frocks was in white linen, with a narrow apple green border, and another was a quaint, old-fashioned spotted lilac print. Others, more elaborate in white linen and colored borders, have applique flowers to match. A very pretty one was of white linen hemmed with scarlet, against which was a border of applique poppies. These little frocks are lovely, carried out in white washing silk, with borders of various pastel shades and flowers, and as dainty and useful as could be desired.

The vogue for immense hair ornaments is another noticeable innovation in New York smart society. In one case there was a great cluster of black ospreys, a half-wreath of pink roses and an immense velvet ornament, sewn with crystals, giving the crowning effect to a lovely pompadour gown. A large bunch of silver berries supplemented by a bunch of laurel leaves, whose glossy foliage admirably sets off the reflection of the silver, was worn by a fair-haired woman.

Crystal beads are much in evidence on the newest black frocks. Some gowns are literally sewn with these glittering dewdrops, while coral and gold beads bring quite a new note into the embroidery of the day, and hammered aluminum sequins are worn with beautiful effect.

Sashes are favored for both day and evening wear, and in one case this revival is illustrated by means of floating ends of coral net, which falls in empire style from between the shoulders of the gown. In another instance a quaint blue sash, patterned with moss rosebuds, is worn in the old approved style. This is also seen in a black satin sash, worn with a striped Tussock gown.

The two new colors which are now seen everywhere on the streets of New York and at all the summer resorts near by are sandstone and wild mint. The former bids fair to maintain its popularity all summer, and will be carried out in voile or faced cloth, stitched in blue silk and embroidered in blue to match, as well as black and self color.

FLASHES OF LIGHTNING

AND PEALS OF THUNDER WERE ATTENDANT UPON PITTSBURG MEETING.

COAL DEALERS HAD AN INNING

Reads Like a Rarebit Dream, Does the Session of Men Who Do Things to Your Bank Account During the Winter.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 13.—To the accompaniment of vivid lightning and deafening thunder the Kokoalers last night held their keruskation.

Promptly at 8 o'clock 11 minutes and 40 seconds, the Modoc, Baron, Baronet, Baronet, Picot, Mazuma, Gazook, Pit Boss, Acolyte, Swatta and Spotta arose and a mighty stillness followed.

Everyone in the room trembled as the lightning flashed again and the thunder pealed. Then the Modoc announced that Boston has been selected as the place for the next convention and the principal work of the Kokoalers was over.

All this really happened. It is not a fairy tale or the result of a midnight rarebit. The Kokoalers have just completed their annual powwow in Pittsburg.

What are the Kokoalers? Why, everyone ought to know that. They are the fellows who do things to your bank account in the winter time, and they are therefore celebrating now in the summer. In other words, they are the retail coal dealers of the United States.

Last year a couple of hundred of them met in Chicago, and they were so struck on the fantastical name that they adopted the weird title of their officers; since that time the Kokoalers have grown into a great institution.

Now their membership has been increased to 2,000, and delegates are here to the convention from all parts of the United States. There is nothing formal about their meetings, although when the fun is all over then the delegates get down to business and discuss the retail coal situation.

CURIOSITY

Leads to Investigation and Truth.

What shall we do to be saved? was the title of one of Robert Ingersoll's lectures. People of faith and people of no faith flocked to hear it. Thousands are asking, What shall I do to get rid of dandruff? The answer is, Kill the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair and finally baldness; and the only thing that will do it is Newbro's Herpicide. That is the very latest discovery of the laboratory, and it is the only preparation that claims to or that will, kill the pestiferous dandruff germ. It also is a delightful hair-dressing, free from oil or grease or sticky substances. Try it and be convinced of its actual merit. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c and $1. W. E. Bard Drug Co., special agents.

Had a Row With His Wife. "Jack" Stephens, former driver of an ice wagon, was arrested Friday night, charged with assaulting his wife, all because she was alleged to have received a letter from a male admirer, a well-known Sedalian. "Jack" gave a bond of $50 for his appearance in Justice Rickman's court tomorrow and was released.

Do you really enjoy what you eat? Does your food taste good? Do you feel hungry and want more? Or do you have a heavy, dull feeling after meals, sour stomach, belching, gas on the stomach, bad breath, indigestion and dyspepsia? If so, you should take a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol will strengthen and nourish your digestive organs and furnish the natural digestive juices for the stomach. It will make you well. It will make your food do you good. Turn your food into good, rich blood. Kodol digests what you eat. Sold by the Arlington Pharmacy.

Will Be Given First Degree. Thirty-five young men from Tipton will arrive here on the Commercial Traveler at noon today, and this afternoon will be given the first degree in Sedalia council No. 831, Knights of Columbus. The party will take dinner at Walch Bros.' cafe, and promptly at 2 o'clock the initiatory work will begin.

NEW YORK NEWS AND GOSSIP

BY GLENN GUERNSEY

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

New York, July 13.—Ever and anon and at times more frequently some preacher, philosopher or prophet arises to remark that New York is a pesthole of corruption, or words to that effect, and that the city and all that therein abide are Hades-bent toward the fate of Sodom and San Francisco. A few months ago a delegation of prominent clergymen called on President Roosevelt, beseeching him to use the big stick in an effort to stem the tide of immorality that threatens to overflow the city. A Catholic priest announced that Central park was the scene every night of orgies and revels that would put Bacchus on the blink. The latest critic is a gentleman from Georgia, who has discovered that the religious as well as the worldly people of the metropolis are morally contaminated. He uses two columns in his home paper to describe the shocking sights witnessed on a steamer excursion to West Point under no less respectable auspices than the Epworth league.

The whole story is unprintable, declares the Cracker critic, who evidently is unaccustomed to public demonstrations of affection.

"It was nightfall, when the return trip began, that the fun began also," writes the gentleman from Georgia. Did I say fun? Let me correct that word at once and say shame—shame—without any mincing of that word or emphasis of that word. Hundreds of couples were sitting or lying on the decks, embracing each other with utterly open and shameless freedom.

"Our Georgia party had gotten far forward on the second deck, and the members being of an age when quietude is pleasant, had moved about none at all during the first hour of the down trip. In their front were four young men and four young women, boys and girls in reality. After a little these young people became affectionately disposed, growing rapidly from bad to worse. The girls' heads sank on the boys' shoulders and the boys' arms went around the girls' waists. If this position grew wearisome the position was reversed, and the girls did the hugging, while the boys did the head-resting. Sometimes both parties to the embracing business pursued it simultaneously.

"When the band struck up 'The Old Time Religion is Good Enough for Me' those couples sang their way through the hymn in truly fervid style.

"Shortly afterward one of the Georgia gentlemen, accompanied by his wife, went for a stroll, and this is what they saw:

"In the rear of where they had been sitting and on the bench against the taffrail were long rows of couples, some violent others quiescent. On the upper, or hurricane deck, there were, some sitting, some reclining, hundreds of young people, all making disgusting spectacles of themselves, and at the same time singing religious hymns. Probably a thousand persons were on that upper deck of the largest excursion boat in these waters, and it looked to that Georgia man and woman as if everybody in sight had lost all sense of decency. Frankly, gross personal familiarity was epidemic. The misconduct of the couples in the prow of the boat faded into insignificance when compared with equal or more flagrant immodesty of the host on the upper deck, and the realization that nowhere on the great steamer with its 2,500 passengers was there a section where modesty could sit unabashed.

"And that top deck once more. The awnings had been removed and a pale, misty moon lit up the scene. Picturesque? Arcadian in its simplicity and disregard of all convention. An opera bouffe picture—only one knew that it was not an opera bouffe. Those young people were not ideal, but sensual, not artistic, but animal. They were not in the garden of Delphne, or riding with Dido in Phoenician waters, or Cleopatra on the Nile.

"Disgusting!" the Georgia woman exclaimed when she saw a peculiarly lavish caress.

"John, you're pinched," yelled a nearby youth, as he buried his lips in the neck of the young woman by his side.

"One woman had two lovers. To one she loaned her shoulder as a pillow, while to the other she gave up her knees for a resting place for his weary brow.

"Do you see anything you like?" brazenly inquired a young man who sat at the top of a companion way, fondling and being fondled.

"Bah! The story isn't half told. It can't be told in print. But, oh, the shame of it all, for those who were guilty knew how to blaspheme their way through many a good old hymn."

Doubtless the story told by the Georgia critic is true. Certainly it represents a very deplorable condition of affairs. New York young people are not likely to be convinced of the error of their ways, however, and will likely continue firm in the belief that the reformers are masticating "sour grapes." Meanwhile the net results of the Georgian's criticisms will probably be to increase the attendance at Epworth league excursions.

One of the novel sights to be witnessed on the East river is a floating law office. Joe Levy, a criminal attorney, whose clientele is among the denizens of the east side, and who is better known as the "Duke of Essex Street," has established offices on a barge that runs from Correction dock, at Twenty-sixth street, to Blackwell's Island. Not only does the "duke" undertake to save criminals from the clutches of the law, but affords a floating haven for Cupid by performing marriages on short notice. The barge is made a prominent object on the busy stream by means of a flaring sign which reads: "Floating law office of Joe Levy, duke of Essex street. Marriages performed on this boat."

Whether a third interest in a whale with a wooden tail is worth $500 is to be settled shortly by the New York courts. William Kuhlbig, an engineer, alleges that he paid that sum to Christ Rehman and August Braun for a share in the big fish upon the assurance that it was a real dead whale that cost $15,000 to preserve. Later, Kuhlbig asserts, he discovered that the whale was a fake, that its tail was made of wood covered with canvas, that its inner anatomy was composed of iron framework, and that the tongue was made of cloth stuffed with hay. Unwilling to foist such an imposition upon the public, Kuhlbig brought suit to recover the $500 he had paid to Rehman and Braun. A jury before Judge Lynn in municipal court returned a verdict in favor of the defendants, but the appellate court has just granted the plaintiff a new trial. Distinguished attorneys will appear for both sides and those for the defense will attempt to prove that $500 is a very modest and reasonable amount to be paid for a third interest in a wooden tailed monster of the deep.

The new trial was granted upon the allegation that Judge Lynn's charge to the jury had been unjust and unfair and prejudicial to the interests of Kuhlbig. In his charge the justice said that the day Kuhlbig "accepted the whale, just as it was, stuffed full of straw and plaster; the day he put on a gold trimmed sea captain's cap and invited the public in, he was wholly and entirely a party to the conditions existing, and for better or for worse he cast his fortune in with the whale. He can not come into court and recover from a defendant on any theory of fraud unless you believe from the testimony that fraud was practiced fairly upon him without his consent or admission.

One of the most stupendous engineering tasks recently undertaken in New York is that of moving the mammoth meteorite, which Robert E. Peary found in Greenland, from its present resting place on the grounds of the American Museum of Natural History to a place in the hall of meteorites. This great mass of iron weighs thirty-seven and a half tons and is the heaviest of its kind known. In order to get it into the great lobby of the museum, the doors are being thoroughly braced. A solid pie of concrete has been built in the basement, on a foundation of solid rock, which will be used as the permanent resting place of the celestial stone. Ever since it was brought to New York the giant meteor has been an object of great interest to scientists and laymen alike and in its new position it will doubtless attract more attention.

The sensation of the day among New York's "smart set," now congregated at Newport, and other fashionable resorts, is the revelation that has torn the mask of duplicity from the face of a man who posed as Antonio Apache, alleged grandson of the famous Indian chief, Cochise. For a time the bogus redskin, now known to be a negro and son of a former cook employed by Mrs. Russell Sage, engaged in a Beau Brummel career that victimized many leading society people of the New York "Four Hundred" and once made him a guest at a dinner party given by President Roosevelt.

According to information furnished by William N. Carey, an artist, "Apache's" real name is Tony Simpson, and he was once a resident of Louisiana, coming to New York to aid his mother in Russell Sage's kitchen, he attracted much attention because of his close resemblance to the Indian chiefs painted by artists who have never been west of Hoboken. Simpson was clever, and the frequent comments on his aboriginal appearance furnished the inspiration which later made him a society lion. Going to Arizona, he made a close study of Indians and their ways and returned to the metropolis to enter upon his brief but triumphant social career as the grandson of an Indian chief.

Four hundred white and colored citizens were present at the meeting. Copies of the resolution were sent to the commercial organizations in all of the larger cities of the state, and the negro Knights of Pythias convention that meets here beginning with next Tuesday will be asked to adopt similar resolutions. No racial trouble of any sort has occurred in Fayette.

NEED CLERKS IN YARDS

Offices Can Supply Jobs to Young Men Who Can Figure.

The yard offices of the M. K. & T. on the hill are in need of several young men to take positions as clerks, says Friday's Parsons Sun. It seems to be as hard to get men for this position as it is to get switchmen. The only requirement for the positions is that the applicant can write and figure.

In the last few months the freight business of the M. K. & T. has increased to proportions it never knew before. That has made more work for the Parsons yards, and of course the clerical force has felt the increase also. Then there are vacancies in some of the regular positions.

The pay for these positions runs about from fifty to sixty dollars per month. J. M. Wood, general agent, has the duty of employing them.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50c. Sold by W. E. Bard Drug Co.

The Two-Cent Rate.

President McCrea, of the Pennsylvania road, testified in the Philadelphia two-cent rate suit that a uniform adoption of that basis would be unfair to the railroads and the public.

CHRIST WROTE LETTER

IT WAS FOUND UNDER A GREAT STONE, ROUND AND LARGE, AT FOOT OF CROSS.

SIGNED BY THE ANGEL GABRIEL

Twenty-Eight Years After the Birth of Our Saviour—Faithful Translation from the Original Hebrew.

The following communication, yellow with age, was found among the archives of Col. Van B. Wisker one day the past week, and was kindly given the Democrat-Sentinel for reproduction this morning:

Transmitted from the Holy City by a converted Jew; faithfully translated from the original Hebrew copy, now in the possession of the Lady Cuba's family at Mesopotamia.

This letter was written by Jesus Christ, and found under a great stone—round and large—at the foot of the cross, eighteen miles from Iconium, near a village called Mecopotamia. Upon that stone was written and engraved: "Blessed is he that shall turn me over." Every one who saw it prayed to God earnestly that he might make known to them the meaning of this writing—that they might not in vain attempt to turn it over. In the meantime there came a little child, six or seven years old, and turned it over, without help, to the admiration of all the people that stood by, and under this stone was found a letter, written by Jesus Christ, which was carried to the city of Iconium and there published, by a person belonging to Lady Cuba, and on the letter was written commandments of Jesus Christ, and signed by the Angel Gabriel, twenty-eight years after our Saviour's birth.—J. P. Anderson.

COPY.

Whosoever worketh on the Sabbath day the same shall be cursed; I command you to go to church and keep the Lord's Day holy—without doing any manner of work. You shall not idly mispend your time in decking yourselves with superfluities of costly apparel, and in dress, for I have ordained it a day of rest and I will have it kept holy—that your sins may be forgiven, and you shall not break my commandments, but observe and keep them. Written with my own hand, and spoken with my own mouth. You shall not only go to church yourself, but also your manservant and your maid-servant, and observe my words and keep my commandments. You shall finish your labor every Saturday afternoon, by six of the clock, at which hour the preparation of the Sabbath begins.

I advise you to fast five days in every year, beginning with Good Friday, and continuing the four Fridays immediately following, in remembrance of the five bloody wounds I have received for mankind. You shall diligently and peacefully labor in your respective vocations, wherein it has pleased God to call you. You shall love one another with brotherly love. Cause them that are not baptized to come to church and hear the holy sacrament, viz: Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and be made members thereof. In so doing I will give you long life and many blessings, and comfort you in the greatest temptation—and surely he that doeth to the contrary shall be cursed and unprofitable. I will also send hardness of heart upon them till I have destroyed them, but especially upon hardened and impenitent sinners. He that giveth to the poor shall not be unprofitable. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day, for the seventh day I have taken unto myself. He that hath a copy of this letter written with my own hand and spoken with my own mouth, and keeps it without publishing it to others, shall not prosper, but he that publishes it to others shall be blessed of me, though his sins be in numbers as the stars in the sky, and he that believeth in this shall be pardoned, and if he believes not this writing and my commandments, I will send my plagues upon him and his children and his cattle. And whosoever shall have a copy of this letter, and keep it in their houses, nothing shall hurt them—neither pestilence, lightning or thunder shall do them any harm. You shall have no news of me but by the Holy Spirit, till the day of judgment. All prosperity shall be in the house where a copy of this letter be found.

Went On a Fishing Excursion.

A company of Sedalians, accompanied by Mrs. George Rudy and little son, of the Smithton neighborhood, went on a fishing excursion Friday, near Cook's bridge, three miles southeast of Smithton.

The party consisted of the following: D. H. Smith and daughter, Miss Gertrude, Mrs. W. H. Powell and two sons, William and David, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Stanley and son, Pitkin Stanley.

Workhouse for Business Men.

Twenty-three Toledo business men have been sentenced to six months in the workhouse and nine others were fined $1,000 each for violation of the anti-trust law.

BACKED BY ROOSEVELT

Prosecution of Schmitz Said to Be a Political Scheme.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 13.—"President Roosevelt, in his almost vindictive desire to obtain criminal evidence against E. H. Harriman, president of the Southern Pacific railroad, is forcing the prosecution of the alleged grafters in San Francisco, hoping to unearth some evidence of wrongdoing with which to convict Mr. Harriman. The president was the guiding hand in the prosecution and conviction of Mayor Schmitz."

This statement was made by Rev. P. C. Yorke, of San Francisco, who is here attending the meeting of the Catholic Educational association.

Father Yorke is a warm friend of the disgraced mayor, and does not hesitate to speak out in his behalf. He claimed the entire prosecution was a political plot hatched for the purpose of displacing Schmitz and putting in power a ring.

He denounced Judge Dunne, Spreckels, Phelan and others, who, according to his accusation, were tarred with the same stick. "Judge Dunne, Rudolph Spreckels and one or two others are more on trial before the people of San Francisco than Schmitz," he said.

"Judge Dunne is a dyspeptic young lawyer who recently graduated from the law school and the Schmitz case was the first criminal trial over which he presided. The whole thing is politics, growing out of a determination of certain wealthy men to get Schmitz out of office and make it impossible for him ever to be a candidate again."

When there is the slightest indication of indigestion, heartburn, flatulence or any form of stomach trouble take a little Kodol occasionally and you will be afforded prompt relief. Kodol is a compound of vegetable acids and contains the juices found in a healthy stomach. Kodol digests what you eat, makes your food do you good. Sold by Arlington pharmacy.

A FORTUNE AT STAKE

Stork to Make Four Visits to Each of His Sons in Ten Years.

Bellevue, S. D., July 13.—James Madison, a Butte county cattleman, is dead, leaving a will in which he bequeaths a snug fortune to each of his six unmarried sons on condition that he shall have a wife within four years, and a family of not fewer than four children within ten years after his father's death.

The unique instrument provides that the property shall be held in trust for the six sons for 10 years, and that at the expiration of that period it shall be divided equally among those who have carried out its provisions. Any son who shall have failed to marry within two years, and to become the father of four children within ten years, will get no part of the estate.

Madison says in the will that it is the duty of every man who is mentally and physically sound to rear a family of children.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS' WORK

BY DR. G. L. SHEPARD

Cooper county held its annual Sunday school convention at Pilot Grove on Monday and Tuesday, July 8 and 9. It was our privilege to be there, and it was a real privilege, for it was a fine convention—those competent to judge say the best they ever had.

Although the heat was oppressive, there was a good attendance at all of the sessions. Several delegates were present from Booneville, several from Buncheon and a number from different points in Cooper county, while the residents of Pilot Grove made up good audiences. We can recall at least ten ministers that were present, and as many as six different denominations that were represented.

The subjects were well chosen and well presented; in several cases particularly so. A very pertinent suggestion was made by one of the committees (we do not recall which) that in future more of the laity, especially the ladies, be placed on the program. This we consider a very valuable recommendation.

In the twentieth century Sunday school there is much talent among the officers and teachers, and often among scholars that should be used and developed in conventions, and would add much to the interest of the meetings and at the same time stimulate a large number for more earnest, thoughtful effort for the future.

If every county in Missouri could have such an inspiring convention as this one we should feel greatly encouraged for the immediate future of our Sunday schools.

We present this week five points essential to a good Sunday school as viewed by Mr. Charles Hoffman, superintendent of the East Sedalia Baptist Sunday school. Mr. Hoffman speaks from long experience and careful observation, and each one of his suggestions is of great value:

First. A good, live christian gentleman for superintendent. He should have all qualifications and gifts enjoined upon a good pastor, according to Paul's letter to Timothy; in fact, he is, or ought to be, the assistant of the pastor. He ought to be the unanimous choice of the church, and as such should have the full endorsement of the members of the church; in other words, the membership of the entire church should follow him enthusiastically in right efforts to build up the school.

Second. A good secretary is as necessary to a good school as a good superintendent. All records should be correctly and carefully kept, literature properly ordered and distributed, reports and statistics regularly prepared, and under the direction of the pastor and superintendent do all such work as may be necessary.

Third. A splendid corps of teachers enter into the work of the effective school. It is a very hard task to get people who are in every way competent to teach, and therefore the superintendent is compelled to do the best he can to supply teachers for his classes. There ought to be in every church a sufficient number of persons who are willing to prepare themselves for the work of teaching in the Sunday school, should feel called of God to do this work, and should offer themselves to the church for the work.

Fourth. The pastor should be in sympathy and thoroughly identified with all that is being done and taught. I wish to say particularly on this last point, and emphasize it, the pastor should know what is being taught in the Sunday school, and I hope all my readers will enlarge on this thought and think about it. The pastor should help to bring all the members of the church in touch with this department of work.

Fifth. Last but not least in the school is the singing. You show me a place where there is good music and I will show you a place where people like to go. I believe that if we want to build up God's kingdom on earth there is no better way than to sing it early into the hearts of the children, while they are yet tender and before other things are offered them which hinder rather than help. I plead for good music in our Sunday schools.

Rev. John Richards, pastor of the Baptist church at Huntsville, told some of his good people that if they did not keep up a good Sunday school he would not preach for them. No Sunday school, no church. He's the right kind of a preacher—Sunday school pastor.

Put some life in the closing exercises of your school. Use the blackboard. If you can't make a bluff at trying to draw, get some of your boys and girls. They'll do it.—Sunday School News.

The answers to our request for the best five points are still coming in. Several more have been promised.

MONKEY ACTS AS JUDGE

NOT ONLY FREED HIS MASTER, BUT IS REWARDED WITH A NICKEL

THE COURT IS FINALLY WON OVER

Tony Massello Was Arrested in New York City for Having Played a Hand Organ Without a License.

New York, July 13.—A full grown monkey sat as judge in the criminal court at Jersey City Friday and acquitted his master of the charge of playing a hand organ without a license.

Tony Massello had been haled to court because Mr. Monk had bitten the finger of a man who offered him a bread crumb.

Since the complainant didn't appear, however, the accusation was quashed, but Tony was held by Judge McCarthy for failure to pay a license fee to the city treasury.

While Tony garbled forth excuses the monkey jumped over the court bar and perched upon the arm of the jurist.

When the latter began a sentence in which he meant to impose a fine the monkey began chattering uproariously.

"He says he wants me to suspend sentence," announced Justice McCarthy, "which I hereby do, so that there won't be any dissension in the court."

Then he handed his fellow judge a nickel, which the monkey slipped into his pocket with a tip of his cap.

Notice to Rock and Gravel Road Contractors

Sealed proposals will be received until 4 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, July 16, 1907, for the construction of the following rock and gravel roads, to be built according to specifications on file in the office of the secretary of the Six-Mile Road board, in the Citizens' National bank building, or of the superintendent:

Ingram avenue, beginning at the present end of rock road, about Twenty-Second street to Broadway, about three-fourths mile, 16 feet wide.

All bids must be made upon blank forms to be obtained of the secretary at his office at Citizens' National bank.

Each bid to be accompanied by a certified check for fifty dollars ($50) payable to the Six-Mile Road board, said check to be returned to the bidder unless he fails to execute the contract, should it be awarded to him.

The check should not be enclosed in sealed envelope with the proposal, but should be delivered to secretary, who will receipt for the same.

Bids will be received for both rock and gravel.

The road board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.—W. H. Powell, Secretary.

Cooper County Boy Hurt.

A 12-year-old son of Sherman Oswald, of near Pilot Grove, was badly injured by becoming entangled in some barbed wire a few days ago.

A horse he was leading also became entangled in the wire, which frightened it, and, in trying to escape, it seriously injured the boy.

Drs. Elliott of Buncheon, Barnes, of Pilot Grove, and Smiley, of Booneville, dressed the wounds, but it is feared that one of the injured legs will have to be amputated.

Resigned Railway Position.

W. L. Wyan, who recently spent his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wyan, of this city, and who up to several months ago had been in the service of the Iron Mountain railway at Little Rock, Ark., has resigned his position as stenographer with the said road, and has accepted a government stenographic position in Little Rock, at a salary of $85 per month.

Mr. Wyan is a deserving young man, well qualified in business matters, and has many friends in Sedalia who wish him unlimited success.

Big Purchase of Land.

The Fulton Gazette says that Koontz & Palmer, Fulton real estate agents, have just closed a deal whereby Sam W. Roberts, of Booneville, comes into possession of 2,355 acres of land in Jackson and McCredie townships at a cost of $79,007.41. Seven farms are included in the purchase. Possession of the property will be given March 1, 1908.

ROSES GIVEN BY LOVER

Clasped to Her Breast When Miss Schenck Took Poison.

Norfolk, Va., July 13.—Several years ago, it is reported, while Miss Florence Schenck was yet a school girl and wore dresses above her ankles, she became much infatuated with an actor of one of Norfolk's popular priced theatres, and during the week he played here rumors were current to the effect that she would become his bride. The actor, whose name no one in Norfolk remembers, showered presents, which her father, Dr. Powhattan Schenck, forced her to return.

As soon as her father discovered how things were going and his daughter was apt to become a center of talk in the city, it is alleged, he forbade her to have anything to do with her actor lover.

She had just received a large bunch of American Beauties from the matinee idol when her father reprimanded her. After he had left she took the roses and went to a deserted school house. She had gotten from some source a small bottle of laudanum and took a large quantity of the poison, then catching up the roses fell prone upon the floor.

The girl was discovered in an unconscious condition by one of the teachers of the school who had happened to be detained at the place, and she immediately summoned her father, who, in a short while, restored his daughter.

The affair created quite a stir in society circles in Norfolk, and much sympathy was expressed for Dr. Schenck. Miss Schenck was quite angry with her father for restoring her, and declared that the actor was the only man she had ever loved and ever would love, and she could not live without him, as life was not worth living.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Sedalia Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

Danger Signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

Danger Signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the coming of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Sedalia proof:

Mrs. Julia E. Crawford, of 302 East Seventh street, Sedalia, Mo., says: "Whenever I caught cold or overtaxed myself I was sure to suffer from backache and pains over the kidneys. At such times the kidney secretions became irregular and showed traces of a brick dust sediment. I learned the value of Doan's Kidney Pills in such cases and procured them at W. E. Bard's drug store. I have used them at various times during the past three years and they have never failed to give me relief. I do not hesitate a moment in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to all who suffer from backache or kidney trouble, for I am positive that they are a most valuable and effective medicine."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Kicking on a Street.

If the Sedalia restaurants want to have lots of business, says the Smith-ton Sunbeam, they should make it a point to have everyone take a drive out East Fifth street, and if it does not make them hungry it certainly will not be because they were not shaken enough.

ALLEGED CRUEL TREATMENT

While in a Columbus Asylum Charged by Rosie Seigel.

Youngstown, Ohio, July 13.—Rosie Seigel, aged 18 years, for the past seven months confined in the home for the feeble-minded at Columbus, begged of Probate Judge Griffith not to be sent back there.

She made sensational charges against the management of the institution, declaring that she had been subjected to the "water cure" when she was seized with a hysterical fit, and that bucket after bucket had been poured on her.

She makes other charges of various character, alleging that she had been beaten with heavy sticks and on numerous occasions had been dragged about the floor by her hair. She told the judge that she had been confined in a solitary cell with but one glass of milk a day as nourishment.

At other times she had been confined in a straight jacket and was not allowed to associate with the other girls. She says that she wrote to her father in the latter part of June to be taken away from there, which he did.

I will mail you free to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either dyspepsia, the heart or the kidneys. Troubles of the stomach, heart or kidneys are merely the symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart and kidneys as well have the controlling of inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the inside nerves. Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample of free book. ## GOOD TIME OVER A GRAVE

New York, July 13.—Leaving a lead pencil will give $400 to four friends and with a provision that $25 should be spent by his friends in having a good time over his grave, a man supposed to be Stefan Magaisy, an Austrian, with a lone nickel in his pockets, took his life on the Mall in Central park just before noon yesterday by shooting himself.

A memorandum book was found in a pocket and written in it in German was the following:

"I am 65 years old and out of work. My name is Stefan Magaisy. I will shoot myself in the right temple in Central park. As soon as I am found please notify Mr. Alfred Lang, 182 East Third street, New York."

There was also a memorandum, meant for a will, in which it was instructed that four friends be each given $100 out of his estate. Then there was this provision, which caused amazement among the police and doctors: "I also want $25 taken from my money and used to have a good time over my grave."

SEIZED HER THROAT

But the Masked Intruder Was Beaten Until He Begged for Mercy.

Morristown, Ind., July 13.—A masked man entered the office of Mrs. Isaac Bishop, local agent of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, and seizing her by the throat, attempted to overpower her. Mrs. Bishop resisted with great determination, and, finally escaping his clutches, beat him so thoroughly that he begged for mercy and made his escape at the first opportunity. His purpose was evidently robbery.

A posse of indignant citizens went in pursuit of the man, but he has not yet been captured.

SEEKING HIS SON

Who Had Been Taken by His Wife When She Elope.

Chillicothe, Ohio, July 13.—Edward Rutter, of Harrison township, appealed to the authorities here yesterday to assist him in regaining his two-year-old son, who was taken by his wife when she left with a man by the name of Coey.

Rutter was compelled to come to the hospital in this city to submit to a surgical operation, and was here for about two weeks seriously ill. When he recovered he found that his home was broken up.

He traced the couple to Portsmouth and wanted to pay an officer to go there and kidnap the boy, but he was advised that if he will go to Portsmouth the authorities there will secure his child for him.

He made an attempt to throw himself under a car three weeks ago, but was prevented by his three brothers.

NECKTIES WERE BILLED

But the Truckmen Who Handled Them Are Under Arrest.

New York, July 13.—Lieutenants Poyle and Fogarty, of the central office, arraigned five men before Magistrate Moss in Jefferson Market court yesterday charged with wholesale thefts of cases of silks and woolens worth $20,000.

The prisoners were Joseph Freedman and Julius Levy, partners in a general trucking business at No. 16 Walker street; Frank Sneed, 20 years old, No. 209 East Eighth street; David Raines, 13, of No. 243 Cherry street, and Henry Wachsberger, 22, of No. 32 St. Mark's Place.

The truckmen were charged with stealing cases of goods they were to deliver to railroads or firms in the west, substituting worthless goods for the valuable contents of the packages. Raines and Wachsberger were held as witnesses. Magistrate Moss fixed $2,000 bail each for Freedman and Levy and $1,000 each for the other three for examination tomorrow.

Michael Goodman, of the firm of Julius Siegel & Co., of No. 401 Lafayette street, makes the complaint. Other firms are said to be interested. Goods shipped to prominent firms in Toledo and Portsmouth, Ohio; Nashville, Tenn., and Ogden, Utah, are said to have been removed from the cases and other goods of one-eighth the value substituted. Several thousands of dollars worth of neckwear shipped to the Toledo, Ohio, firm was listed among the abstractions.

But two words of English could the maiden speak, and they were Danville, Ky." From her neck was suspended a card addressed to H. Routenberg, Danville, Ky. She made the trip without incident, and was married in less than an hour after she arrived at her destination.

NEWS of the NATIONAL CAPITAL

BY ROBERT HITCHCOCK

Special to Democrat-Sentinel.

Washington, July 13.—A body unique in the category of military organizations will hold its national encampment in Washington next week. Civil war veterans of the army and navy men who fought in the Spanish war, several survivors of the struggle with Mexico and regulars who battled with the red skins in the Indian wars are among the members of the Army and Navy League and will attend the coming convention. The local committee has almost perfected arrangements for the big gathering. Garrison of the organization scattered throughout the country have notified the national office that they will be represented, and many members will be here from the colonies, war ships and military posts, making the encampment the largest ever held by the league. Elaborate preparations have been made for the reception and entertainment of the soldiers and sailors. The Army and Navy League is composed of men who served in all wars, those who served in the regular army and navy in times of peace and regulars who participated in Indian wars.

In connection with the convention, Santiago day will be celebrated by the United Spanish War Veterans next Wednesday, an excursion to Luna park being among the entertainments arranged for the men who took part in the Cuban campaign.

The organization of the Army and Navy League was completed March 31, 1888, and is incorporated under the laws of the state of Ohio, with a perpetual charter. Garrison is located in nearly every state and territory of the union and also in Cuba, the Philippines, China and on the various cruisers and war ships of the United States navy.

The objects of the organization are to bring together and unite in benevolent and social fellowship those who have served honorably in the army, navy and marine corps of the United States, to provide for the sick and needy, bury the dead and aid the dependent relatives of deceased soldiers and sailors. To this end the union has already secured the passage by congress of several laws designed to provide for the nation's defenders, and other bills of this nature will be introduced at the next congress.

"Thirty" for Carrie.

Carrie Nation, formerly of Kansas and Oklahoma, but now a permanent resident of the national capital, has just celebrated her thirtieth appearance before a police magistrate to answer to a charge of disturbing the peace. Of late Carrie has become known as a regular in police court circles and her periodical outbursts of prohibition sentiment as much to be expected as the spree of a habitual drunkard. Her latest attempt to make war upon the demon rum ended, as usual, in police court, where she was fined $5 and costs which she paid.

"I was depressed in spirits last night and could not sleep, so wandered forth upon the highways and hedges to speak my mind and save my fellow men." So quoth Carrie to the magistrate, but the oratorical outburst did not move the flinty-hearted judge, who severely censured the "smasher" for the strong language she had used in denouncing the liquor dealers.

"I never said anything stronger than—" began Mrs. Nation. "Silence," shouted the judge. Several times Carrie attempted to tell just how strong her language was, but the shocked judge refused to listen and Mrs. Nation left the court room in deepest disgust.

Vacation Season On.

While the president, diplomats, cabinet members and many of the bureau chiefs have already enjoyed several weeks of vacation, the clerks, stenographers and other employees of the government are just beginning to leave Washington for their annual outing of thirty days provided by Uncle Sam. When those now off on leave have returned to their duties still others will betake themselves to the mountains, seashore or farm, or perhaps remain quietly in town. Practically all of these employees receive full pay during their vacations, and this vacation is estimated by government officials to aggregate $7,000,000 a year. Of course, in the end, the people pay the freight, although few are likely to object to such an expenditure.

In government employment, as in private business enterprises, the man with the largest salary is the most favored. While the ordinary clerk gets only thirty days as a loafing spell, the department heads and bureau chiefs usually stay away from Washington three or four months or through the summer and part of the fall.

In a few departments, as in the government printing office, extra help is employed during the vacation season, but in most of the offices the work is allowed to pile up. As a result many communications may go unanswered for weeks or months.

BOMB AN EMPTY SHELL

DENIES HE MEANT TO SUGGEST ASSASSINATION AS REMEDY FOR LID.

THE WORDS ARE MISINTERPRETED

Editor Waechter Said That Reformers Should Be Sent Hence and Critic Feared That Folk Was Meant.

St. Louis, Mo., July 13.—Joseph Waltenberger, editor of the St. Louis County Waechter, published at Clayton, is angry because two editorials which recently appeared in his paper, separated by the customary dash, have been welded into one by a hostile critic. The merging of the two has made the editor appear as an advocate of assassination, as a remedy for Governor Folk's lid.

Both the editorials were in German. The first was, according to the editor's English translation: "The next thing Czar Joseph Folk will order us all to do will be to wear muzzles on Sunday."

This was followed in the column by the second editorial, which the editor translated: "The people of Russia are far ahead of those that are downtrodden in Missouri, for tyrants there are sent to the underworld with Knifefekt."

The last word, Waltenberger says, has no exact English equivalent, but means a destructive force of any sort.

At about the time these were printed, Editor Waltenberger sent a bill for some printing to a minister living in Manchester. He says he has not received the amount of the bill, but that he has received a letter condemning him for the two editorials, which the writer combines into one.

He also learned that the minister had sent a translation of the merged editorials to Jefferson City, whence it has been sent out as indicating a possible plot against Governor Folk. Complaint has also been made to the postal authorities, the editor is informed.

"I am a native American," said the editor to a reporter Friday, "and I despise anarchy and assassination. It is not fair to assume that I had Governor Folk in mind in writing the second editorial. I might have had any source of oppression in mind. It was not a wise utterance, I now realize, but it had no such meaning as has been attached to it."

ANTI-LOBBYING BILL

Of a Sweeping Character is Passed By Georgia Legislature.

Atlanta, Ga., July 13.—A drastic anti-lobbying bill was passed by the Georgia legislature yesterday by a vote of 15 to 0.

Under its provision lobbyists must register with the clerk of the house and the secretary of the senate as to their employment by corporations to promote or oppose legislation, and must also file the names of the employing corporations, together with descriptions of the legislation in reference to which service is to be rendered.

The bill also makes it unlawful for lobbyists to go upon the floor of the legislature while in session or to speak in private with legislators in regard to legislation. They will be permitted to appear only before committees. Violation of law is punishable by fine and imprisonment.

WILL LOSE BOTH EYES

Paper Ball Was Hurlled Into Face of the Sleeping Man.

Hamilton, Ohio, July 13.—By a thoughtless trick played by fellow employees at the Beckett Paper company, Roy Mitchell, aged 17 years, of 223 North Eighth street, will probably lose the sight in both eyes and be disfigured for life.

While asleep he was struck in the face with a ball of green pulp paper, and the vitriol and poisonous coloring matter entered his eyes.

Four of the employees of the mill are under police surveillance.

Killed Neighbors' Chickens.
George Kelly, an aged negro, was arrested by the constabulary Saturday for killing chickens that belonged to a neighbor. He pleaded guilty to the charge, but sentence was deferred by Judge Rickman. Kelly has been in the habit of wringing the necks of neighbors' chickens that visited his place, then throwing them away.

FELLED THE CLERK

Injuring Him Fatally and Escaped With Diamonds and Jewelry.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 13.—Two men entered the pawnshop of Emil Mantel and Charles Medias, at 337 and 339 Massachusetts avenue, in the downtown district, last night, and, after striking down the clerk with a piece of hose, and rendering him unconscious, escaped with plunder valued at $3,000. The clerk, Simon Gold, was fatally hurt.

At the hospital Gold stated that he was preparing to look up for the night when two men entered and asked to look at a diamond ring. After purchasing a costly stone the robbers requested that they be shown a suit case which was stored in the rear of the store.

When being shown the suit case one of the men struck Gold a stinging blow over the head with a piece of hose. The clerk managed to get to the telephone later and notify the owners of the pawnshop. Upon their arrival at the store Gold was in a critical condition and was removed to a hospital.

The thieves got away with $150 in cash, $1,500 worth of diamonds, two dozen gold watches and numerous other valuables.

WOMEN AS CARD SHARPS

A GAME ON A LINER ON THE ATLANTIC THAT WAS VERY "CROOKED."

WAS TRAPPED IN A CLEVER TRICK

Miss Clarice Vance, the Well Known Music Hall Singer, Discovered Her Discarded Ace in an Opponent's Hand.

New York, July 13.—Miss Clarice Vance, the music hall singer, who has just returned on the White Star liner Adriatic, after a season in London and Paris, tells of an experience she had with a number of women card sharps on the voyage across.

As she was singing somecoon songs at the piano two women, introducing themselves as Mrs. Brooks and Miss Lincoln, admired her singing and invited her to sit in a game of draw. Two more women sat in, the game continuing four hours, and Miss Vance won $30.

The next day play was resumed and, while Miss Vance kept on winning, she could not help noticing that her two admirers played together. Whenever there was a heavy jackpot Mrs. Brooks always won it.

The vaudeville actress drew a pair of kings and discarded the ace of clubs and a couple of other clubs. Then she drew another king, which, with a pair of deuces, gave her a full house.

Mrs. Brooks and the actress kept raising each other until there was $210 in the pot. When Miss Vance called, Mrs. Brooks laid down four aces, including the ace of clubs Miss Vance had discarded. Miss Vance told Mrs. Brooks she had discarded the ace and to avoid a scene, Mrs. Brooks let her take the pot.

ROASTED IN A CYLINDER

Was a Mute, Following an Explosion of Paint.

Hagerstown, Ind., July 3.—Charles Favorite, a deaf mute, while employed in painting the interior of an iron cylinder 20 feet long and 12 feet in diameter, was probably fatally burned.

The iron shell was so heated from the sun that a man could remain inside but a few minutes at a time. Favorite's working companion, Arch Knapp, lighted a candle to use during his shift and approached the manhole of the tank.

There was a terrific explosion which threw Knapp 20 feet and burned his clothes from his body. The interior was a burning furnace, in which Favorite was being roasted to death when he was rescued. His face was terribly burned and his entire body a mass of blisters. If he recovers his eyes are probably destroyed.

Benzine and asphaltum, mixed with oil, composed the paint, the benzine causing the explosion when the candle was brought to the manhole.

Thousands of people are daily suffering with kidney and bladder troubles—dangerous ailments that should be checked promptly. DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are the best remedy for the backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder. Their action is prompt and sure. A week's treatment for 25c. ## "DRY" DOWN IN TEXAS

Not From Drouth, But Because the Saloons Are Closed.

Austin, Tex., July 13.—With the exception of Dallas and El Paso, prohibition is in effect all over Texas today. The saloons will remain tightly closed for a period of not less than ten days, pending approval by the state authorities of their applications for renewal of their licenses.

Not even the back doors are open in Austin, San Antonio, Houston and other cities. This remarkable situation was brought about by a hiatus in the new liquor law, which went into effect at midnight Thursday night. The law made no provision for saloons continuing open while applications for new licenses were pending.

That Dr. W. J. Lawson has something in store for him on his return from spending his honeymoon in the east.

That tomorrow night's session of the council gives promise of being possessed of more than ordinary interest.

That if he lives to be as old as Methuselah, of Biblical fame, never again will Frank DeBolt cash a check for a stranger.

That John McCloskey would rather have his name in the "They Say" column of the Democrat-Sentinel than be mayor of Sedalia.

That among his patrons George W. Pope, the expert electrician, is known as "Silent George," because he very seldom has anything to say.

That Walter Merrifield, the Missouri Pacific trainmaster, has something up his sleeve that he will dish out in the not distant future.

That the man who "sports" must take his medicine like a man, and not complain when lady friends confront him with his shortcomings.

That another democratic candidate for sheriff is as certain as death and taxes, making a total of eight to late that will seek the party nomination next year.

That Will Croff's Boonville girl would never have come to Sedalia had she learned of an experience that befell the genial "William" one day recently.

That a limb-measuring contest at a recent function on the west side of Ohio avenue won for one fair maiden a pair of silk hose and for another a box of bon bons.
